|    |        |  A group of approximately ten people are seated on green plastic chairs in a large, brightly lit room with white walls and a green floor. The room has several windows and a doorway in the background. The people are dressed in casual attire, including shirts, trousers, and a hijab. Some are looking towards the camera, while others are looking towards the back of the room. The overall atmosphere appears to be a formal or semi-formal gathering, such as a community meeting or a training session. |
